

FOLLOWING THE CCEA SPECIFICATION

GCSE Business Studies

STUDENT CROSSWORD PACK

Unit 1 SAMPLE

16 Crosswords tailored to fit the specification and assist with the recognition and learning of key words. The full pack includes a student booklet and teacher answer booklet. The sample contains 2 sample crosswords

SITE LICENCE

Name of School:

FOLLOWING THE CCEA SPECIFICATION
GCSE Business Studies
STUDENT CROSSWORD PACK
Unit 1

Student Name: _____

Registration Class: _____

Teacher: _____

SITE LICENCE

Name of School:

UNIT 1 Entrepreneurs, Business Resources

Across	Down
1. There are 4 key resources businesses require to operate. Land, Capital, Enterprise and ... (6)	1. Many people start a business after being made redundant and they are facing ... (12)
2. A person who takes risks to start their own business (12)	2. Business owners are always coming up with new ideas (10)
3. Many people start out on their own to be able to make their own decisions (12)	3. A business owner must to be able to respond quickly to events and therefore must be a good ... (8,5)
4. Approximately 50% of businesses within the first 5 years ... (4)
5. In order to make a living from the business the owner will need to be able to pay themselves in this way (6)

UNIT 1 International Trade

Across	Down
1. International Trade provides customers with a greater range of products to choose (7)	1. Additional documentation and legislation makes it more difficult for businesses to export (3,4)
2. This allows free trade between countries that belong to the European Union (6,6)	2. When exporting this barrier has to be accounted for when providing information to customers (8)
3. International trade has increased this for business (11)	3. Businesses need to consider these exchange rates when setting a price for products in different parts of the world (8)
4. Exporters also need to be careful of these differences to ensure products or services offered do not cause offence (8)	4. The cost of this essential item for business is likely to be higher when exporting goods to account for things like loss or damage in transportation (9)
5. These developments have made it easier for smaller businesses to sell products and services across the globe (10)

FOLLOWING THE CCEA SPECIFICATION
GCSE Business Studies
STUDENT CROSSWORD
ANSWER BOOKLET Unit 1

Student Name: _____

Registration Class: _____

Teacher: _____

SITE LICENCE

Name of School:

UNIT 1 Entrepreneurs, Business Resources

Entrepreneurs, Business Resources Clues

Across	Down
1. There are 4 key resources businesses require to operate. Land, Capital, Enterprise and ... (6)	1. Many people start a business after being made redundant and they are facing ... (12)
2. A person who takes risks to start their own business (12)	2. Business owners are always coming up with new ideas (10)
3. Many people start out on their own to be able to make their own decisions (12)	3. A business owner must to be able to respond quickly to events and therefore must be a good ... (8,5)
4. Approximately 50% of businesses within the first 5 years ... (4)
5. In order to make a living from the business the owner will need to be able to pay themselves in this way (6)

International Trade Clues

Across	Down
1. International Trade provides customers with a greater range of products to choose (7)	1. Additional documentation and legislation makes it more difficult for businesses to export (3,4)
2. This allows free trade between countries that belong to the European Union (6,6)	2. When exporting this barrier has to be accounted for when providing information to customers (8)
3. International trade has increased this for business (11)	3. Businesses need to consider these exchange rates when setting a price for products in different parts of the world (8)
4. Exporters also need to be careful of these differences to ensure products or services offered do not cause offence (8)	4. The cost of this essential item for business is likely to be higher when exporting goods to account for things like loss or damage in transportation (9)
5. These developments have made it easier for smaller businesses to sell products and services across the globe (10)	